RE: New Law/Open Carry with Training Act

All registered South Carolina State Constables MUST have an approved CWP Permit to Open carry. The Constable commission is not to be used in lieu of your approved CWP Permit. If you are interested in applying for a CWP Permit to open carry, then please logon to sled.sc.gov and complete the electronic process or print out the CWP Application and provide all documents necessary to complete your request and mail your packet to the address found on the application.

If you should have any questions regarding your CWP Permit process, please contact the Regulatory Unit at 803-896-7015.
